

It is a delight not to receive unwanted calls.....especially those that arrive during super time. Weakening the 'do not call' legislation favors the telemarketers and does not consider or protect the citizen.